MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Justices Myers, Osborne, and Carlyle Opinion by Justice Carlyle

Sammy Ray Fletcher waived a jury and entered guilty pleas to ten counts of theft, two counts of robbery, and one count of burglary of a building. The trial court found him guilty and sentenced him to ten years' imprisonment in each case, to run concurrently.

Fletcher's attorney has filed a brief in which she concludes Fletcher's appeals are wholly frivolous and without merit. The brief meets the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), because it presents a professional evaluation of the record and shows why, in effect, there are no arguable grounds to advance on appeal. See High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807, 812 (Tex. Crim. App. [Panel Op.] 1978). Counsel appears to have delivered a copy of the brief to Fletcher, and we advised him of his right to file a pro se response, which he did not do. See Kelly v. State, 436 S.W.3d 313, 319–21 (Tex. Crim. App. 2014).

Having reviewed the record and counsel's brief, see Bledsoe v. State, 178 S.W.3d 824, 826–27 (Tex. Crim. App. 2005), we agree with counsel's conclusion that any issues would be frivolous and without merit, having found nothing in the record that might arguably support them.

We affirm the trial court's judgments.
